

Visit Broek in Waterland

- Famous Dutch country side village
- Voted most beautiful village of North Holland
- 83 listed monumental buildings and houses
- Church of Broek in Waterland (St. Nicolaas Church) from 1628 is the most important monument
- Opening hours (May-September) church
Tuesday – Saturday 10:00-16:00
Sunday – Monday 13:00-16:00
- Cappucino, espresso, coffee, tea, fresh cakes & pastries
- Lunch menu, sandwiches, drinks
- WiFi
- Facilities
- Free entry

Guided tour (approximately 45 minutes)

A walk through church and village. Learn about the rich history of the village. Every Friday at 12:30 (EU 5,- p.p.)

St. Nicolaas Church

- Easy cycling to most important monument in Broek in Waterland, the St. Nicolaas Church, dating back to 1628.
- Choose a shorter (30km) or longer (45km) cycling route from Amsterdam Central Station (routes inside) of comfortable cycling through beautiful, flat 'Waterland'
- Enjoy coffee, tea, lunch, drinks and facilities on-site
- Free entry

Address

Kerkplein 13

1151AH Broek in Waterland

www.kerkbroekinwaterland.nl

Easy cycling to

BROEK IN WATERLAND

Cycling routes

We offer 2 interesting cycling routes through the varied scenery of wonderful Waterland to Broek in Waterland.

Starting point

Amsterdam Central Station IJzijde
(Ferry to Buiksloterweg), point 05.

Short route: 30km | 19mi | 3 hours

- 05 Ferry Buikslotermeer 36 37 Ferry 38 01
 Broekerkerk 01 41 76 Ferry 78 44 43 45
 46 Ferry 05

Long route: 45km | 28mi | 5 hours

- 05 Ferry Buikslotermeer 36 04 20 19 16 15
 21 22 02 Broekerkerk 01 41 76 Ferry 78
 44 43 45 46 Ferry Central Station 05

just follow the signs!

Alternative route for Monday-Friday in May, June and September when Holysloot cycle ferry is not operating.

